240-Hour Visa-Free Transit in China

China is implementing a 10-day (240 hours) visa-free transit policy. The transit program allows visitors who have existing flight bookings from China to a third country (region) to snag a visa on arrival at a Chinese airport (port) and stay for 10 days before departure. Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan all count as third destinations.

Passport holders of 54 countries, including the United States and the United Kingdom, can enter visa-free through any of the 60 open airports (ports) in 24 provincial regions, covering popular tourist cities like Beijing, Shanghai, Xi'an, Chengdu and Guangzhou.

Meanwhile, citizens from 38 countries can enter China visa-free for up to 30 days.

Date	Destinations	Attractions, Meals & Transport
1	Day 1 Hong Kong	arrival transfer to hotel
2	Day 2 Hong Kong	breakfast, lunch Tour duration: about 2 hours hiking Transfer from the hotel to Central ferry pier and take public ferry to Lamma Island Yung Shue Wan Main Street is the main residential area on Lamma Island, with a main street lined with shops, bars, cafes and restaurants. Around a 20-minute walk from Yung Shue Wan Pier, Hung Shing Yeh Beach is the most popular beach on Lamma Island where you can enjoy the sun, sand and water with the convenience of changing facilities and restaurants. There are scores of Tin Hau temples scattered across Hong Kong, dedicated to the Chinese goddess of the sea who is regarded as a powerful and benevolent force by seafaring folk. Given that Lamma was founded on fishing, it is no surprise to find no fewer than three Tin Hau temples on the island. Sok Kwu Wan is a tiny village which is still very much focused on fishing and the produce that comes out of the nets. The string of seafood restaurants along the bay is revered by day-tripping locals for the freshness and taste of the food, served in classic Cantonese style.

3	Day 3 Hong Kong	breakfast, lunch Tour duration: about 1.5 hours hiking Transfer from hotel to Pak Tam Chung Country Park and take car to East Dam High Island Reservoir in Sai Kung East Country Park is famous for its scenic beauty. During construction of the reservoir, stone was quarried from the cliffs around the East Dam. The excavation work revealed globally rare rhyolitic volcanic hexagonal rock columns and the site became the best spot to see this geo-wonder at close range. It is one of the most popular geopark attractions. Sai Kung's Geopark is good place to see Hexagonal Rock Columns and Distorted Rock Columns. Hexagonal Rock Columns: The stunning, light-colored rock columns found in the Geopark's Sai Kung Volcanic Rock Region —created as dense volcanic ash and lava cooled following massive eruptions 140 million years ago — are estimated to cover an area of more than 100 sq km—including some located underwater. Distorted Rock Columns: The trail takes you past one rock face featuring an area of distorted, S-shaped columns, as if they have melted in the sun. This area of hexagonal rock columns was twisted by the effects of a geological movement before the rock columns completely solidified. Some years later, hot magma was able to force its way between the weakened columns and spread across the top of the columns, forming a dyke as it turned to dark colored rock.
4	Day 4 Hong Kong	breakfast, dinner In the morning, visit Mai Po Nature Reserve. Commonly known as Hong Kong's 'Bird Paradise,' Mai Po Nature Reserve is an internationally significant wetland that provides a vital habitat for tens of thousands of migratory birds each winter. In the afternoon, visit Wetland Interactive World at Hong Kong Wetland Park. The Hong Kong Wetland Park is a world-class conservation, education, and tourism facility that demonstrates the diversity of Hong Kong's wetland ecosystem through interactive exhibitions and a 60-hectare nature reserve. In the evening, enjoy dinner at "Victory Beef Ball," a time-honored restaurant in Yuen Long.
5	Day 5 Hong Kong	breakfast Today, enjoy some free time at leisure on your own. Later, transfer to the airport. Service ends.
