Malaysia to Bali via Singapore - 13 Days

- Take photos of the magnificent Petronas Twin Towers - Discover Malacca's unique culture and architecture - See the highlights of Singapore in one day - Try white water rafting on Ayung River in Bali

Date	Destinations	Attractions, Meals & Transport
1	Day 1 Kuala Lumpur	 Activities for today: Upon arrival at Kuala Lumpur airport, you will be met by a local representative and transferred to your hotel. Have a rest to recover from jet lag or step out into the city for a little adventure.

Breakfast, Lunch

Activities for today: Your Kuala Lumpur city discovery today include visiting the King's Palace, the National Museum for learning about the history and culture of Malaysia, the National Monument, the superb buildings at the Independence Square, and the Moorish-style railway station. You will also stop at the magnificent Petronas Twin Towers for photo opportunity. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant for you to have a taste of Bak Kut Teh (literally means "meat bone tea"). Be free to do some shopping on your own or relax at your hotel this afternoon.

the King's Palace: The Istana Negara (the King's Palace) is the official residence of the Yang di-Pertuan Agong, the head of state of Malaysia, located along Jalan Duta in northern Kuala Lumpur. Many royal banquets and celebrations are held in this palace. Thousands of visitors come for the palace guard shift ceremony.

the National Museum: The National Museum (Malay: Muzium Negara) is located on Jalan Damansara in Kuala Lumpur. It offers a rich look at Malaysian history and culture. The displays range from free-standing tableaux showing cultural events like weddings, festivals and costumes; to traditional weapons, musical instruments, arts and crafts, ceramics, and flora and fauna.

the National Monument: The National Monument is a sculpture that commemorates those who died in Malaysia's struggle for freedom, principally against the Japanese occupation during World War II and the Malayan Emergency, which lasted from 1948 until 1960. It is famous for the world's tallest bronze freestanding sculpture grouping.

the Independence Square: It was here the Union Flag was lowered and the Malayan flag hoisted for the first time on 31 August 1957. Since then, the square has been the usual venue for the annual Merdeka Parade. You will feel the track of Malaysian history while taking a slow walk.

Petronas Twin Towers: The Petronas Towers, also known as the Petronas Twin Towers, are twin skyscrapers in Kuala Lumpur. According to the Council on Tall Buildings and Urban Habitat (CTBUH)'s official definition and ranking, they were the tallest buildings in the world from 1998 to 2004 and remain the tallest twin towers in the world. The buildings are a landmark of Kuala Lumpur, along with nearby Kuala Lumpur Tower.
